

Everyday Life and Cultural Production: Art in the Barriera District

Art plays an important role in urban regeneration processes, whether it is public or private, an effective engine of transformation or a promotional device.

This mobile workshop will focus on the Barriera di Milano district, a regeneration area in which different public and private interventions have art as keyword and main stimulus.

One of the 13 Millo's murales in Barriera

Source: <http://arteinbarriera.com/online/en/the-blog/>

h 14.30: mobile workshop participants leave from the Castello del Valentino

h. 15.00-16.30: Visit to the "Barriera di Milano" neighbourhood. The "Ettore Fico" Museum (MEF: <http://www.museofico.it/en/>) and the Bagni pubblici di via Agliè (<https://bagnipubblici.wordpress.com>)

Introduction: Carlo Salone (Unito, IT)

Speakers:

- Lorena Tadorni, in charge of "Ettore Fico Museum" A.R.T. (Activities and Relationships with the Territory);
- Erika Mattarella, director of Bagni pubblici di via Agliè.

Venues:

- Museo "Ettore Fico", Via Francesco Cigna 114;
- Bagni pubblici di via Agliè, Via Agliè 9.

Participants: max 20.

Costs: public transport tickets, entrance to the museum (€ 5, reduced entrance fee).

Organiser: Carlo Salone, University of Torino

To participate: send an email to info@eura2016.org adding the name of this mobile workshop to the subject.

Suggestion: (facultative) Transfer to via Baltea 3 (5 min. walk) for the presentation of the book "Rethinking Life at the Margins, another euraoff event (starting at 18.30).